THE ROAD TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

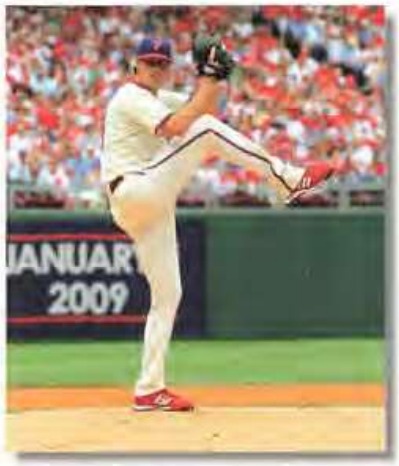
Jimmy Rollins almost nonchalantly predicted that this team would win 100 games, as the Phillies set about defending their first NL East title since 1993. But just as the Phillies had to come from far behind in 2007 to make the playoffs, the 2008 season felt like a struggle most of the year. Despite a perfect season from Brad Lidge and a brilliant year from Cole Hamels, the Phillies were 3.5 games behind the Mets (and 4 games back in the wild card) on September 10.

Then they surged. In September, Ryan Howard hit .352 with 11 homers and 32 RBI, Rollins batted. 313, Shane Victorino hit .344. A four-game sweep of Milwaukee triggered a 13-3 finish that pushed the Phillies past the Mets. On September 27 against Washington, with the Phillies clinging to a 4-3 lead in the ninth with one out and the bases loaded, Rollins dove to his left to start a game-saving double play – and with that, the Phillies clinched the division.

Jamie Moyer (3-0 in September and 7-1 after the All-Star break) won the clinching game for the second year in a row. In the raucous celebration that followed, Rollins began talking about math. He'd predicted 100 wins. The Phillies made the postseason with 92. Reaching the World Series would put them at 99. Winning it, ending Philadelphia's championship drought and setting off what everyone knew would be one of the wildest celebrations in the city's history, would take 103.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES VS. MILWAUKEE BREWERS

GAME 1 – October 1 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 3, Brewers 1



Cole Hamels set the tone right away, retiring the first 14 hitters he faced. Hamels, who won 14 games and finished in the top six in the league in innings, ERA, complete games and strikeouts in the regular season, allowed just two hits and struck out nine in eight shutout innings. Asked when he thought Hamels had the game under control, Phillies pitching coach Rich Dubee smiled and said, "From the first inning on."

The Phillies scratched out three unearned runs in winning their first postseason game in 15 years. Chase Utley got the Phillies on the board with a two-run double just over the head of Milwaukee center fielder Mike Cameron and Shane Victorino added a bases-loaded walk to cap a three-run third inning. It was plenty for Hamels.

Brad Lidge, 41-for-41 in save opportunities in the regular season, allowed a run in the ninth but struck out Corey Hart with two on to end it.

GAME 2 – October 2 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 5, Brewers 2

Shane Victorino hit the first grand slam in Phillies postseason history and delivered three hits, a walk and two stolen bases before a crowd of 46,208 (the largest in the history of Citizens Bank Park). Brett Myers threw seven solid innings and the Phillies knocked out Milwaukee ace CC Sabathia in the fourth to take a 2-0 lead in the series.

But afterward, most of the talk was about The Walk Heard 'Round the World.

In the second inning, Myers worked a two-out walk off Sabathia after being down 0-2, fouling off several pitches as the crowd roared. The walk by Myers (an .059 hitter in the regular season) set the stage for Victorino's slam in a five-run inning. "I am a terrible hitter," Myers said. "I really can't explain it. It was just one of those freakish things. Baseball's weird, sometimes."

GAME 3 – October 4 at Miller Park
Brewers 4, Phillies 1

Jamie Moyer lasted just four innings and the Phillies never got going against five Brewers pitchers. Their only run came on an RBI groundout by Ryan Howard in the sixth inning.

Moyer opened the game by uncharacteristically walking the first two hitters he faced and then gave up a sacrifice fly to Prince Fielder and an RBI single to J.J. Hardy. The Phillies bullpen allowed two more runs, while the Brewers bullpen stymied the Phillies in 3 2/3 scoreless innings. When an interference call on Shane Victorino short-circuited a ninth-inning rally, the Phillies had lost their first postseason game.

GAME 4 – October 5 at Miller Park
Phillies 6, Brewers 2

Pat Burrell, hitless in the first three games of the series, drilled two home runs and drove in four to lift the Phillies into the National League Championship Series. Jimmy Rollins got the Phillies started with a leadoff homer and Joe Blanton delivered six strong innings, allowing just one run. Blanton improved to 5-0 after coming to the Phillies in a July trade.

"It was a long time coming," said Burrell in a champagne-soaked clubhouse as the Phillies celebrated their first playoff series win since 1993. "But that just makes it sweeter."

The Phillies hit four homers in the game – a team playoff record – and none were bigger than Burrell's three-run shot in the third inning. With Shane Victorino on third, the Brewers walked Ryan Howard intentionally to face Burrell, who had been battling a back injury suffered just before the playoffs began. Burrell pounded Jeff Suppan's 2-2 pitch deep to left and the Phillies were on their way.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES VS. LOS ANGELES DODGERS

GAME 1 – October 9 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 3, Dodgers 2

The Phillies trailed 2-0 in the sixth inning when Chase Utley connected for a two-run homer, his first career postseason home run. One out later, Pat Burrell followed with a home run to send the crowd at Citizens Bank Park into a frenzy. Cole Hamels made it stand up with another strong performance.

Hamels allowed an RBI double to Manny Ramirez and a sacrifice fly, but held the Dodgers in check and struck out eight in seven innings. Ryan Madson and Brad Lidge finished it to give the Phillies the first game of the series.

Derek Lowe allowed the Phillies just four singles through the first five innings, but Shane Victorino reached base on an error in the sixth and Utley and Burrell provided all the offense Hamels would need. "They pitched us tough, but we have eight and sometimes nine guys who can swing the bat," Utley said.

GAME 2 – October 10 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 8, Dodgers 5

A somber mood hung over the Phillies even as they jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the series – manager Charlie Manuel's mother passed away hours before the first pitch and Shane Victorino's grandmother passed away during the game. Victorino's father was in attendance, but didn't tell his son the news until after the game – and it was a game Victorino dominated.

Victorino drove in four runs and made a leaping, game-saving catch against the center field wall in the seventh inning. "It's obviously a tough day around here," said Victorino afterward, his eyes rimmed with tears. "But Charlie stayed strong and kept us all strong."

"I told Charlie we'd win this game for him," said Brett Myers, who picked up the win. Myers allowed five runs, but was the beneficiary of an offense that scored eight times in the first three innings. Myers' inexplicable heroics at the plate continued, with three hits and three RBI. "I'm baffled by it," Myers said.

GAME 3 – October 12 at Dodger Stadium
Dodgers 7, Phillies 2

The benches cleared in the bottom of the third, after Dodgers starter Hiroki Kuroda threw a pitch over Shane Victorino's head. Victorino protested, shouting at Kuroda to keep the ball down, and both dugouts started yelling. After a groundout, Victorino and Kuroda had words as the inning ended, and the dugouts emptied.

The incident – precipitated by a pitch Brett Myers threw behind Manny Ramirez in Game 2 – ratcheted up the intensity in the series. But the baseball in Game 3 was all Dodgers as Jamie Moyer allowed six runs and was knocked out of the game in the second inning.

Charlie Manuel, managing with a heavy heart, still best summed up the way to deal with the controversy and bad blood: "I always say, you let that Louisville [Slugger] do the talking for you and you'll be all right."

THE ROAD TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

GAME 4 – October 13 at Dodger Stadium
Phillies 7, Dodgers 5

Matt Stairs, a late-season pickup by GM Pat Gillick, delivered the biggest hit of his career, a two-run homer in the eighth inning that broke a 5-5 tie and pushed the Phillies to the brink of the World Series. Stairs became the first player in history to debut for a team in September and then hit a game-winning home run for that team in the postseason.

"There's no better feeling," said Stairs, of his second career postseason hit. "I'm not going to hit a single and steal second, I try to hit every ball out of the park."

Chase Utley had three hits and made the play of the game in the sixth inning. With the bases loaded and one out, Utley snared Russell Martin's line drive and scrambled to second to double off Rafael Furcal. Shane Victorino homered in the eighth to tie it, setting a Phillies postseason record with his 11th RBI and setting the stage for Stairs' heroics. Ryan Madson picked up the win and Brad Lidge saved it.

GAME 5 – October 15 at Dodger Stadium
Phillies 5, Dodgers 1

Cole Hamels captured the NLCS MVP with another dominating performance in the clincher, allowing the Dodgers just one run in seven innings. His last pitch was a strikeout of Jeff Kent with two on and two out in the seventh, handing a 5-1 lead to the bullpen. Ryan Madson and Brad Lidge delivered two scoreless innings to send the Phillies to the World Series.

Jimmy Rollins got the Phillies going with a leadoff homer, becoming the first player in history to hit two leadoff home runs in the same postseason. Ryan Howard had three hits and drove in a run, Pat Burrell added an RBI single and Chase Utley scored two runs as the Phillies took advantage of three errors by Dodgers shortstop Rafael Furcal.

"I guarantee you my mom is watching right now," said manager Charlie Manuel. "The last time I talked to her, she said, 'Pray for me.' Then she said, 'Charles Jr., I'm going to pray for you. You're going to win these games, and you're going to go to the World Series.' That was the last thing she said to me."

WORLD SERIES VS. TAMPA BAY RAYS

GAME 1 – October 22 at Tropicana Field
Phillies 3, Rays 2

Chase Utley, playing with a hip injury that would require surgery after the World Series, hammered a two-run homer to right in the first inning to give the Phillies a lead that would send them to victory in Game 1 of the World Series.

Utley squared to bunt early in the at-bat and then turned on a 2-2 pitch from Scott Kazmir, becoming the 34th player in history to homer in his first World Series at-bat. It was only the second home run Kazmir allowed to a left-handed hitter all year.

"I think he's one of the best players in the game," manager Charlie Manuel said. "You've got to sit and watch him, day in and day out, the way this guy goes about playing baseball, to really enjoy how good he is."

Carlos Ruiz drove in the Phillies' other run with an RBI groundout. That was plenty for Cole Hamels, who ran his postseason record to 4-0 with a 1.55 ERA with seven strong innings. Hamels benefited from a fine defensive play from Pedro Feliz with the bases loaded and one out in the third inning, as Feliz ranged to his left to snag B.J. Upton's sharp grounder and start an inning-ending 5-4-3 double play.

RINGTHEBELL.TV on Archive.org

GAME 2 – October 23 at Tropicana Field
Rays 4, Phillies 2

The Phillies' bats went cold against James Shields, who allowed nine baserunners in 5 2/3 innings but held the Phillies scoreless. The Phillies managed just one hit with a runner in scoring position – and that, an infield single by Shane Victorino, did not score a run – and through two games in Tampa the Phillies fell to 1-for-28 with runners in scoring position.

Brett Myers allowed two runs in the first, but lasted seven innings and allowed just three earned runs, including a Jason Bartlett squeeze bunt in the fourth inning that scored Cliff Floyd. But the Phillies' only offense was Eric Bruntlett's homer in the eighth and an Evan Longoria error in the ninth that allowed Carlos Ruiz to score.

GAME 3 – October 25 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 5, Rays 4

Carlos Ruiz homered in the second inning, committed a throwing error that allowed the Rays to tie the game in the eighth, and then won it in the ninth with an infield single. Eric Bruntlett led off the ninth by getting hit by a pitch, then moved to third base on a wild pitch and a throwing error. The Rays walked the bases loaded to bring up Ruiz, a .219 hitter in the regular season.

Ruiz topped a ball down the third base line, too slowly for any play, and Bruntlett scampered home.

"To me, it was perfect," Ruiz said. "I think I had one of the best days of my life. I'll remember this moment for the rest of my life and I hope we have two more just like it."

Chase Utley and Ryan Howard hit back-to-back homers in the sixth. Jamie Moyer departed with a 4-2 lead, but the Rays came back to tie it against the Phillies bullpen. It would be the only series game to enter the ninth inning tied, but the Phillies had a good luck charm all along. During pregame ceremonies, singer Tim McGraw delivered the game ball and sprinkled some of the ashes of his father, Phillies legend Tug McGraw, on the mound.

GAME 4 – October 26 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 10, Rays 2

Ryan Howard went the first 11 games of this postseason without a home run and he carried a .323 slugging percentage into the World Series, but the Phillies slugger came alive with one homer in Game 3 and two in Game 4. It was the only lopsided game of the Series.

"To be able to hit two home runs in the World Series is the kind of stuff you dream of," Howard said.

Sparked by Howard's three hits and five RBI, the Phillies' high-octane offense finally showed up. Jayson Werth hit a two-run homer in the eighth, Jimmy Rollins had three hits and Pedro Feliz had two. Even starting pitcher Joe Blanton got in on the act, becoming the first pitcher to hit a home run in the World Series since Ken Holtzman in 1974.

"I just close my eyes and swing hard," said Blanton, who would donate his bat to the Hall of Fame.

Blanton also pitched six solid innings for the win, allowing just two runs and striking out seven. He did not lose a decision since joining the Phillies in a midseason trade, running his record as a Phillie to 6-0. In his career, Blanton has posted a .727 winning percentage after Aug. 1, a mark that trails only Roy Oswalt and Johan Santana among active major league starters.

THE ROAD TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

GAME 5 – October 27 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 2, Rays 2 (suspended in the sixth inning)

In one of the most controversial games in World Series history, the Phillies and Rays started play in a rain storm that grew worse by the inning and turned the infield into soup by the sixth. Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig suspended play and announced the game would be played to conclusion – whenever that would be.

"We'll stay if we have to celebrate Thanksgiving here," Selig said.

The Phillies scored first, on Shane Victorino's two-run single in the first inning with ace Cole Hamels on the mound. But they could not add on, and the Rays scored in the fourth on Rocco Baldelli's single and tied it in the sixth on Carlos Pena's RBI single. The game was stopped in the middle of the sixth, as driving rains made the conditions unplayable.

"Mother Nature got the win," Hamels said.

After years of waiting for this moment, the Phillies and their fans were forced to wait a little longer.

"It's bizarre," Chase Utley said. "But these guys are very focused. This team has been through tough times before. We've been playing for seven months now. Another day or two won't hurt us."

GAME 5, CONTINUED – October 29 at Citizens Bank Park
Phillies 4, Rays 3

At 9:58 p.m. Brad Lidge struck out Eric Hinske and made the Phillies World Champions.

Lidge's strikeout, wrapping up his perfect season, touched off a massive celebration on the pitcher's mound. Lidge saved seven games in seven opportunities in the playoffs, tying the NL mark for most saves in a single postseason.

When play resumed after a 46-hour rain delay, Geoff Jenkins opened the bottom of the sixth with a double and scored on Jayson Werth's single. Rocco Baldelli homered to tie the game again in the seventh. Chase Utley kept the game tied with the defensive play of the World Series, throwing out Jason Bartlett at the plate.

With two outs and Bartlett on second, Akinori Iwamura hit a grounder up the middle. Utley gloved it, but at the last second decided he didn't have a play at first and pump faked, then looked up to see Bartlett wheeling around third. Utley threw him out at home on one hop, with Carlos Ruiz expertly blocking the plate and applying the tag.

The Phillies responded in the bottom half of the inning with Pat Burrell's double to left-center, his only hit of the World Series. Eric Bruntlett came on to pinch run, Shane Victorino grounded out to move him over, and Pedro Feliz drove in the go-ahead run with a single. J.C. Romero threw a scoreless eighth to set the stage for Lidge and the Phillies' first world championship since 1980 and the city's first title since 1983.

"I'm just so proud of this group of guys," Utley said, drenched in champagne during the postgame celebration. "You don't see this too often, guys that care about each other as much as we do."

Cole Hamels was the World Series MVP. The Phillies wound up winning every home game in the postseason, finishing 7-0 at Citizens Bank Park. Including the postseason, the Phillies won 24 of their final 30 games.

THE ROAD TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP

OCTOBER 31 – PHILLIES VICTORY PARADE

Broad Street was painted red for the Phillies' victory parade two days later, as an estimated two million fans descended on the city and kicked off the largest victory celebration in Philadelphia's history.

Pat Burrell led the procession on a Clydesdale-drawn carriage and seven flatbed trucks followed, carrying players and their families. Fans climbed trees and leaned out from windows of office buildings that lined Broad Street, cheering the World Champions.

Jamie Moyer, who grew up in the Philadelphia suburbs and skipped school to attend the 1980 parade, said, "This is unbelievable. The parade in 1980 was pretty exciting, but today tops it by far."

Thousands of fans watched the parade on video screens at Citizens Bank Park and Lincoln Financial Field, the Eagles' home field. The Phillies stopped at the football stadium, then made their way to Citizens Bank Park where they raised a red "2008" banner to signify the World Series Championship.

"The greatest thing I've ever seen in my life," said manager Charlie Manuel, "and I'll always remember it."

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997 he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has moved to Citizens Bank Park, which opened to very positive reviews in April of 2004. Under his leadership, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 38 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the board of directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties) and serves on the board of the newly created Major League Baseball Network. He is also a member of MLB's Schedule Committee and MLB's Labor Policy Committee.

Locally, Montgomery remains an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He currently serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. He is a past member and former chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio – 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery serves on the boards of Need in Deed, a non-profit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, Pa..

In February 2007, Montgomery was one of Need in Deed's 20th Anniversary honorees in recognition of his many years of service on the organization's board. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the annual "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education. PAL presented Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's longtime support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and non-profit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association – Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ball club is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964) where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005 and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, and one granddaughter, Elizabeth.

EXECUTIVES

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Giles spent much of his childhood with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati and got his first job in baseball as a teenager doing all kinds of odds and ends in the Reds Public Relations Department.

From that inauspicious beginning, Giles went on to establish his own impressive baseball career. He has held various positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia, and served on numerous committees in baseball while being one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Giles was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. His appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony to his stature in the game. Giles is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions, and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League, a role in which he represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; and the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006).

Born in Rochester, N.Y., on September 7, 1934, Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles recently wrote a book about his baseball career currently available in most bookstores or online entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball.

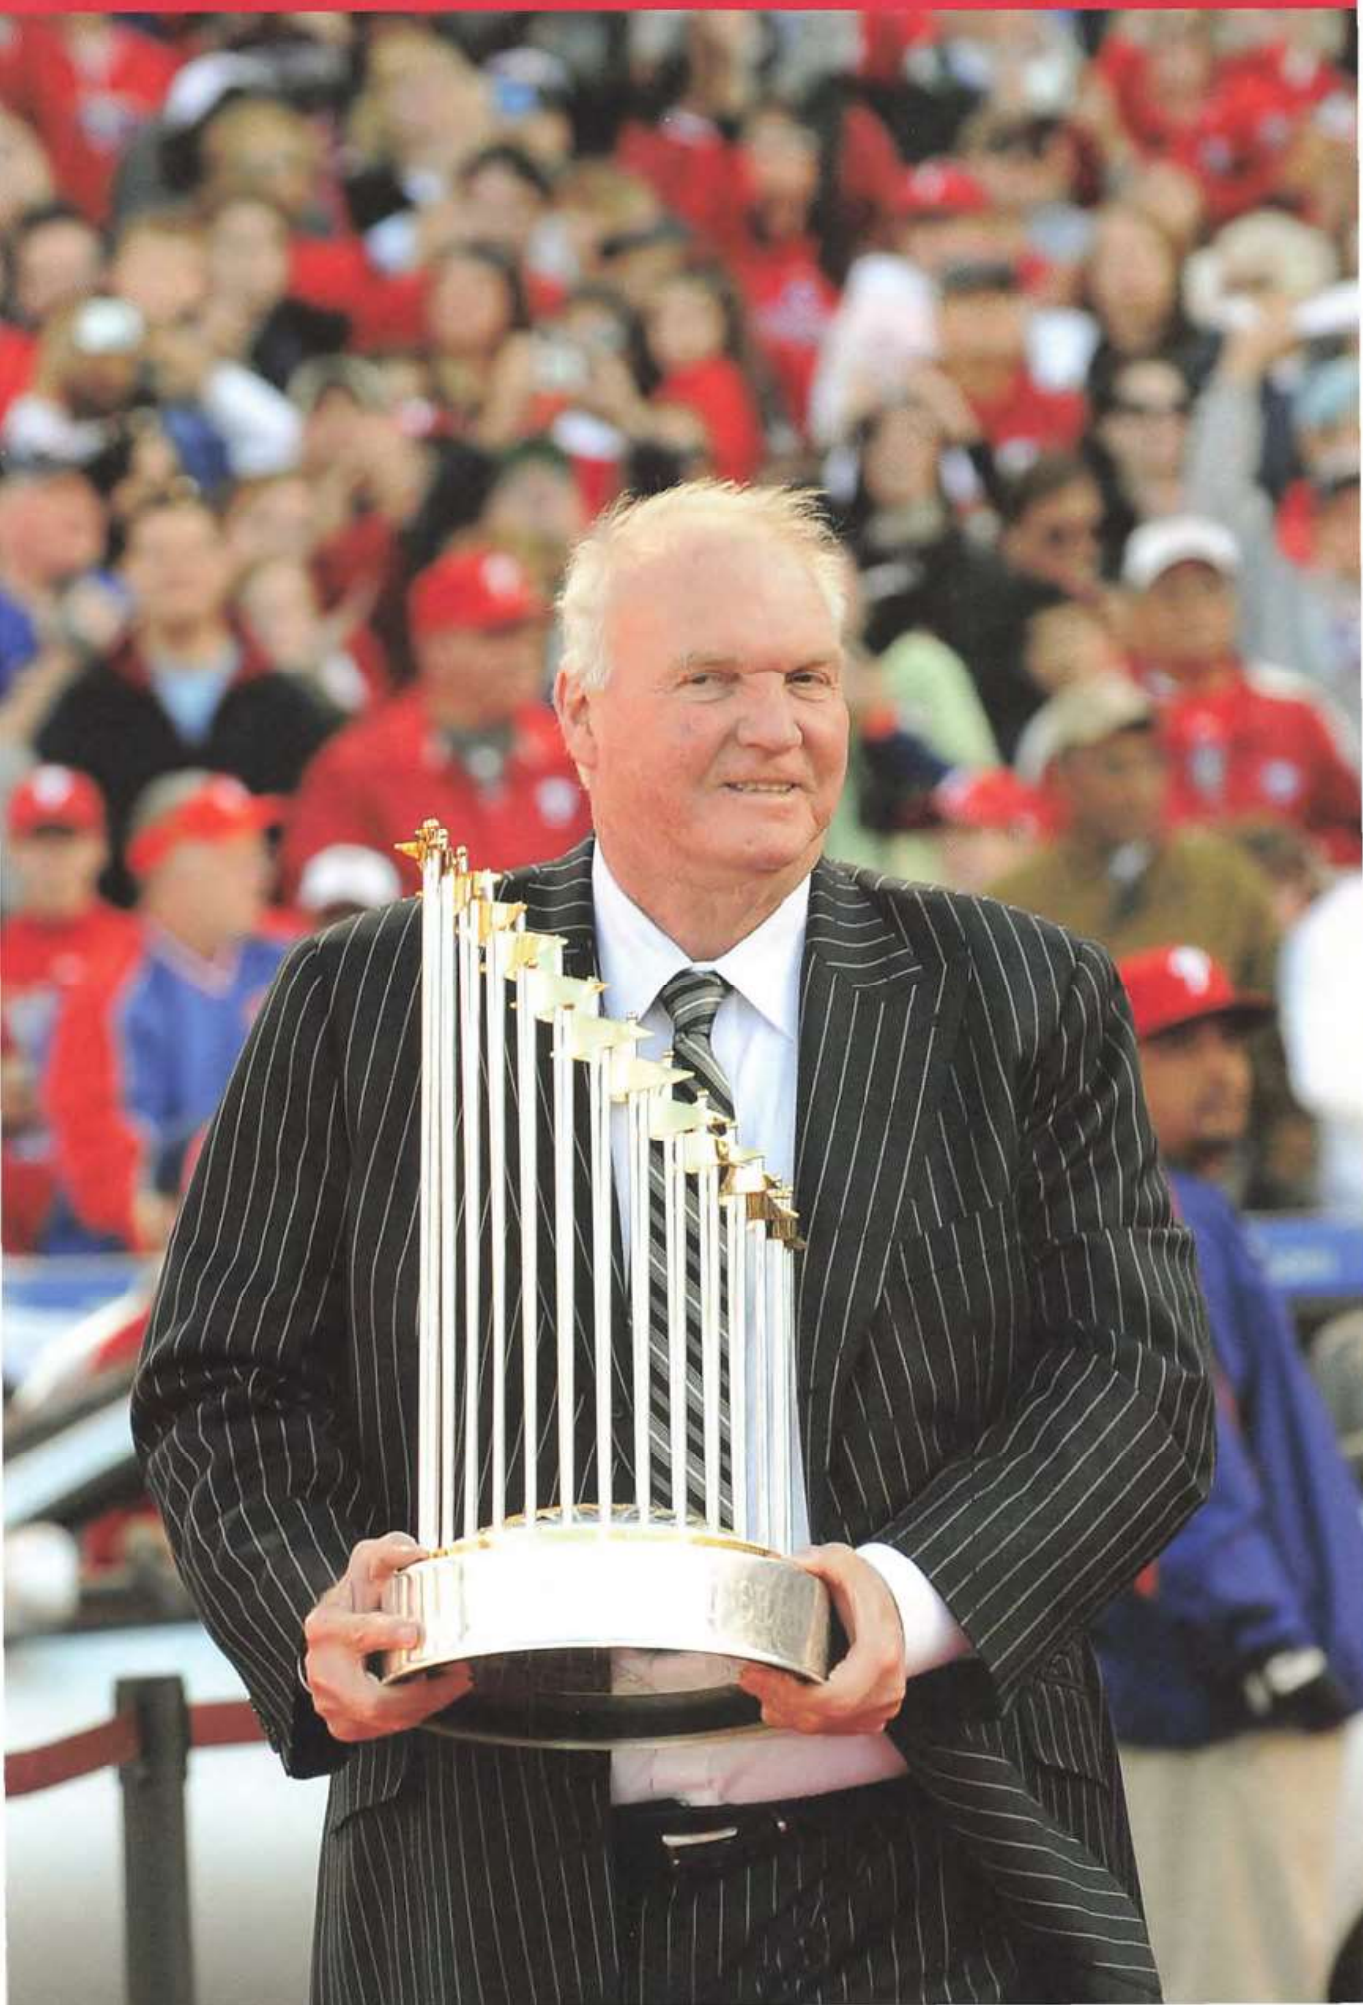
2008 REVIEW



2008 TEAM NOTES

WORLD CHAMPS

For the second time in club history (1980), the Phillies won the World Championship. Since MLB shifted to the three-round playoff format in 1994, the Phillies' 11-3 (.786) postseason record tied for the best winning percentage among all National League teams and 4th-best in the majors, behind only the 2005 White Sox (11-1, .917), 1999 Yankees (11-1, .917) and 1998 Yankees (11-2, .846). The 1995 Braves were the only other NL club to go 11-3 in the playoffs.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Phillies went 7-0 at home in the playoffs to become the first team since to do so since MLB shifted to the current three-round playoff format in 1994. Their seven wins tied for the most at home by any National League club (2001 Diamondbacks, 7-2) and tied for second-most by any major league team (2002 Angels, 8-1).

DIVISION WINNERS

It also marked the first time since 1976-78 that the Phillies won back-to-back Division Championships. At 92-70, the Phillies had their 12th 90-win season and first since 1993 (97-65). Charlie Manuel became only the second manager in Phillies history to win consecutive Division Championships, joining Danny Ozark (1976-78), and the first manager to lead the Phillies to the playoffs in back-to-back years since Dallas Green (1980-81).

BASH BROTHERS

Chase Utley and Ryan Howard connected on back-to-back home runs in Game 3 of the World Series, October 25 off Tampa Bay's Matt Garza. It was the 14th time in WS history that teammates have hit back-to-back home runs.

RECORD-SETTING OFFENSE

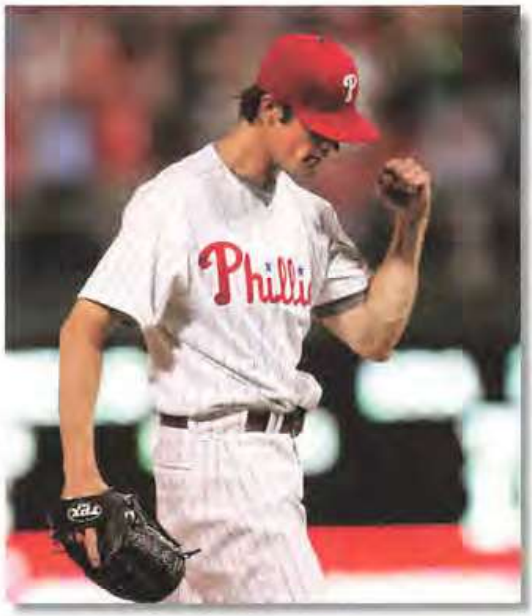
With 19 postseason home runs (in 14 games), the Phillies set a club record, eclipsing the 1993 team which hit 14 homers (in 12 games). The Phillies also set club postseason records for runs (64), hits (121), doubles (27), RBI (60), walks (61), slugging percentage (.449), extra-base hits (48), stolen bases (14), total bases (209) and times on base (184).

CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

2008 marked the Phillies' sixth consecutive winning season (2003-08). It is the longest streak since the Phils had a franchise-best nine consecutive winning seasons, from 1975-83 – which included two trips to the World Series and a championship – and tied for second-longest in club history. The other six-season winning streak was 1962-67. In the 1800s, the Phillies had three 4-year streaks.

PITCHING IN

The Phillies finished with the fourth-best ERA (3.88) in the National League and their 11 shutouts tied for fourth-most. Phillies starting pitchers had the fourth-most innings (966.2) among NL staffs and they finished with 88 quality starts (min. 6.0 IP, 3 ER or less), which were second-most, trailing only the Diamondbacks (95). Cole Hamels led the team and tied for fourth in the NL with 23 quality starts, Jamie Moyer had 19, Brett Myers had 15, Kyle Kendrick had 13, Adam Eaton had 10, Joe Blanton had five and J.A. Happ had three.



SLAMMING THE DOOR

The Phillies led all major league teams with a 79-0 record when leading after 8.0 innings. They were one of three major league teams to remain undefeated all season when leading after eight, along with the Yankees (77-0) and Giants (60-0).

COMEBACK WINS

The Phillies had 39 come-from-behind wins in 2008, which ranked sixth among all National League teams.

2008 TEAM NOTES

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

The Phillies set club records in both total attendance (3,422,583) and sellouts (50) in 2008. They finished fifth among all major league clubs in both total attendance and average attendance (42,254). Citizens Bank Park had sellout streaks of 16 straight (7/9-8/20) and 13 straight (6/3-7/7) in 2008 and 73 of the 81 crowds were over 35,000. The Phillies also set a franchise record by topping 3 million in their 71st home date and, earlier in the season, tied a club record by topping 2 million in the 49th home game.

MEN OF STEAL

For the second consecutive season, the Phillies led all major league teams in stolen base percentage (84.5), finishing 5.2 points ahead of the next closest team (COL – 79.3%). The Phils stole 136 bases and were thrown out 25 times, ranking third in the NL in steals. Individually, Jayson Werth (20-for-21, 95.2%) and Jimmy Rollins (47-for-50, 94.0%) finished first and second in the NL, respectively, in stolen base percentage. Rollins and Shane Victorino (36) were one of only two sets of teammates to each steal 30 bases (LAD's Juan Pierre and Matt Kemp were the others).

POWERBALL

The Phillies led all National League clubs with 214 home runs, the second-highest total among all major league clubs (CWS – 233). It marked the fourth straight season that the Phillies hit at least 200 homers and the club set an all-time franchise record by homering in 18 straight games, September 3-22. Ryan Howard (48), Pat Burrell (33) and Chase Utley (33) combined for more home runs (114) than two major league clubs (MIN – 111; SF – 94). Their combined 114 HR was the second-highest total by a Phillies trio in club history. In 2006, Howard (58), Utley (32) and Burrell (29) combined for a club-record 119 home runs.

INTRA-DIVISION NUMBERS

Within their division, the Phillies went 41-31 (.569), which was the highest win total among all National League teams. The Phillies compiled a 3.99 ERA against the NL East, which was the best intra-division ERA among NL East clubs. The offense scored 355 runs in 72 games (4.93 runs/game), which was the second-highest total (Marlins – 357).

MONTHLY WINS

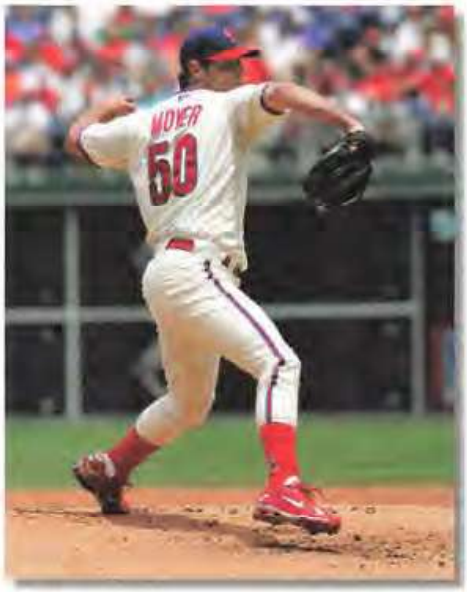
The Phillies won at least 15 games in seven straight months, dating to 2007 (May 2007-May 2008). It was the first time the Phils had done so since doing it eight straight months, July 1963-August 1964.

PEACHY IN GEORGIA

The Phillies went 9-0 in Atlanta this season, with three 3-game sweeps at Turner Field. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Phils are the only visiting team ever to win nine consecutive games in Atlanta within one season. At 14-4 against the Braves in 2008, the Phillies set their franchise single-season record for most wins against Atlanta.

LEFTY STARTERS

Jamie Moyer (16), Cole Hamels (14) and J.A. Happ (1) combined for the most wins (31) as left-handed starting pitchers among all National League teams and second-most in the majors, trailing only the Indians (43). The White Sox rounded out the top 3 with 28 wins from left-handed starters.



NIGHT OWLS

At 68-46 (.596), the Phillies had the best record and most wins in night games among all National League teams and posted the third-best team ERA (3.75). Ryan Howard led all NL players in HR (39) and RBI (106) in night games and Chase Utley led the NL in total bases (246), tied for the lead in extra-base hits (61) and finished third in RBI (83).

OUTFIELD ASSISTS

The Phillies led all National League teams and tied for the major league lead (MIN) with 36 outfield assists in 2008. Individually, Pat Burrell tied for fourth in the NL with 12 assists, Geoff Jenkins and Jayson Werth had nine each, Shane Victorino had seven and T.J. Bohn had one.

20/20 VISION

Over the course of 17 days, the Phillies had two 20-run games (5/26 vs COL and 6/13 at STL) to become the first major league team to have two 20-run games in the same season since 2000, when the A's did it. It was the first time the Phils had two 20-run games in one season since 1900. Over a 52-year span, from 1956-2007, the Phillies had only three total games with 20 or more runs. They also became just the sixth major league team since 1900 to score at least 20 runs in a game two times in a span of fewer than 20 days. The last team to do that was the 1994 Twins; the last National League team to do it was the 1925 Pirates.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics joined that league.

When the Association disbanded in 1876, several of the stronger teams formed the National League, as it is still known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 NL season, Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, purchased the Worcester (MA) franchise along with attorney Col. John I. Rogers and moved it to Philadelphia. During their final year in the NL, the Worcester club was known as the Brown Stockings.

Starting a ball club from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," a takeoff on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." The Phillies are the oldest, continuous, one-name, one-city franchise in all of professional sports.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

Alfred Reach

FIRST GAME

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which over 1,800 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 120 million spectators have attended games in the city.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Pat Moran

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927, forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park, the home of the A's. Finally, after 51 years at Baker Bowl, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

While the A's remained stable under the Shibe family, ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly. From 1903 to 1943, the club had ten different owners.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Center fielder Richie Ashburn started a streak of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as President in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Under Manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season. Lenny Dykstra finished second in the MVP race, while Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were all named to the NL All-Star squad.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

Starting in 2001, the Phillies became perennial playoff contenders. After four second-place finishes, the Phils won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

The members of the Phillies' two World Championship teams will never be forgotten, but they are just some of the people who have impacted the club over its 126 years of existence. There were Hall of Famers from the early years of the franchise like Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson... MVP winners like Klein and Jim Konstanty... Cy Young Award winners like John Denny and Steve Bedrosian... Rookies of the Year like Jack Sanford, Dick Allen and Scott Rolen... broadcasters like By Saam, Bill Campbell and Harry Kalas. And there's one more important figure in Phillies history... the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted as the team's mascot on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire #42 in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball... Robinson made his debut in 1947 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death... In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson... Former pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number, in 1997. Game 5 - October 15

The Phillies clinched their sixth National League pennant with a 5-1 win at Dodger Stadium. Just as he did in the series-clinching game against the Brewers, Jimmy Rollins hit a leadoff home run to put the Phils on the board first. Cole Hamels turned in another solid performance to earn the win and was named NLCS MVP for his efforts.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2008 WORLD SERIES

PHILLIES VS. TAMPA BAY RAYS

(Phillies win series, 4 games to 1)

Game 1 - October 22

A two-run home run by Chase Utley in the first inning quieted the sellout crowd at Tampa Bay's Tropicana Field and helped the Phils to a 3-1 win in Game 1 of the Fall Classic. With the help of some great defense, Cole Hamels improved to 4-0 in four postseason starts, holding the Rays to one run on five hits in 7.0 innings.

Game 2 - October 23

Tampa Bay knotted the series at one game apiece with a 4-2 win. The Rays jumped out to a 3-0 lead after 2.0 innings thanks to a pair of RBI groundouts and an RBI single. Starter Brett Myers kept the Phils in the game for his 7.0 innings, but the Phils struggled at the plate, going 0-for-13 with runners in scoring position and leaving 11 men on base.

Game 3 - October 25

Fifteen years and a ninety-one minute rain delay later, the World Series returned to the City of Brotherly Love. As the second oldest pitcher to start a World Series game, Jamie Moyer rebounded from his first two subpar postseason starts, allowing three runs on five hits in 6.1 innings pitched. A walk-off infield single by Carlos Ruiz against a five-man Rays infield broke a 4-4 tie and gave the Phillies a 2-1 series lead.

Game 4 - October 26

The Phillies' offense exploded with 12 hits in a 10-2 win at Citizens Bank Park. Ryan Howard led the way with two home runs and five RBI and Phils starter Joe Blanton was impressive both on the mound and at the plate. He allowed two runs on four hits with seven strikeouts over 6.0 innings pitched and connected for his first career homer - a solo shot - in the 5th inning off Edwin Jackson.

Game 5 - October 27

Although it took two days to complete, it was worth the wait as the Phillies won their second world title in franchise history with a 4-3 win over the Rays. Trailing 2-0 after the first inning, the two coldest bats in Tampa's lineup heated up and knotted the game, 2-2, after 5 ½ innings. At that point, heavy rains caused Commissioner Bud Selig to suspend the game – a first in World Series history – for 46 hours. When play resumed on Wednesday, October 29, an RBI single by Pedro Feliz in the 7th inning scored Eric Bruntlett from second base and ended a 28-year title drought for the Phillies and a 25-year drought for the city.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

1998 – Pete Cera: A long-time employee who was with the Phillies from 1938 through 1998. He was a minor league traveling secretary, clubhouse manager, trainer and closed his outstanding career as assistant clubhouse manager in the major leagues.

Served as minor league manager, scout, farm director, player development director, general manager (1980 World Champions), major league manager (1983 NL Champions), assistant to the president and senior advisor to the general manager.

2000 – Ray Krise: First began working in the Phillies ticket office in 1951. Three years later he was named assistant ticket manager. He became ticket manager in 1962, a position he held until semi-retirement in 1986.

2006 - Kathy Killian: Kathy has been with the organization since 1985. She began her Phillies career as an intern in the Sales Department and two years later she was hired full-time as a sales office representative. "Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

He spent 30 of his 41 years as a member of the Phillies organization. With 17 years on the coaching staff, he is the longest tenured coach in team history and one of the most respected persons to ever wear a Phillies uniform.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, contributions to the Phillies and baseball, character, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their long-time manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Former Philadelphia Inquirer baseball writer Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), and Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992) won the J.G. GENERAL INFORMATION

BROADCASTERS

HARRY KALAS

A Major League Baseball broadcaster for 43 years, the past 38 with the Phillies beginning in 1971, Harry is the voice of Phillies baseball. Among current broadcasters, he ranks sixth in tenure, trailing Vin Scully (1950), Milo Hamilton (1953), Jaime Jarrin (1959), Jerry Coleman (1960) and Ralph Kiner (1962).

Harry was inducted into the broadcaster's wing of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2002, receiving the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award, given to a broadcaster who has made "major contributions to baseball." In 2000, he was honored by the Phillies during an on-field ceremony for his 30 years of service. During his 42-year career, Harry has opened three ballparks – the Astrodome on April 12, 1965, Veterans Stadium on April 10, 1971 and Citizens Bank Park on April 12, 2004.

The man who made the call "Outta here!" a household phrase, Harry graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a BA degree in speech, radio and television. On his graduation day he was drafted and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the Army. During his time in the islands, Harry served as sports director of KGU Radio and broadcast games for the University of Hawaii and the Hawaii Islanders of the triple-A Pacific Coast League.

A member of the original Houston Astros broadcast team in 1965, Harry also broadcast University of Houston football and Southwest Conference basketball at that time. Among his many jobs, he has broadcast Big Five basketball (Philadelphia) and University of Notre Dame football. In addition to baseball, he currently records several programs for NFL Films, broadcasts NFL games for Westwood One Radio Network and provides voice-overs for numerous commercials.

Born on March 26, 1936, in Chicago, Ill., Harry currently lives in Media, Pa., with his wife Eileen. He has three sons, Todd, Brad and Kane.

CHRIS WHEELER

A Philadelphia native, "Wheels" is entering his 33rd season as a Phillies broadcaster Wheeler, a student of the game, has done play-by-play and color analysis on both radio and television.

Wheeler began his Phillies career in 1971 as assistant director of publicity and public relations under Larry Shenk. While a member of that department, he was added to the broadcast team in 1977. In addition to his broadcast duties, Wheeler was named director of the Phillies' new community relations department in 1982. In 1991, he became the department's director of the Speakers Bureau, a position he held through 1997. Additionally, Wheeler was the camp coordinator for Phillies Dream Week from 1983-99.

After graduating from Penn State University in 1967 with a BA degree in journalism and broadcasting, Wheeler got his first job with WCAU Radio in Philadelphia as a news writer and reporter, while also doing traffic reports from an airplane. He then moved to WBBM Radio in Chicago, followed by a stint in New York with CBS Radio, before joining the Phillies.

Born on August 9, 1945, Wheeler is also a graduate of Marple Newtown High School. He resides in Blue Bell, Pa.

LARRY ANDERSEN

The 2009 season is Larry's 12th season in the booth serving as a color analyst for Phillies radio broadcasts.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. Last year he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they've won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in the League Championship Series with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (33.0 IP), set in 1984. It is also the second-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.2 scoreless innings in 1911.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997).

Born on May 6, 1953, in Portland, Ore., Larry currently resides in Philadelphia, Pa. He has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase.

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and post-game host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. Last year the duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage for the second consecutive year.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) in 1994 with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. He worked for two seasons as the part-time pre- and post-game host for his hometown Texas Rangers (1997-98) before becoming the voice of the Kane County Cougars, a single-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins (1999-2001). In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and post-game shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born on March 6, 1972, in Dallas, Texas. A devoted animal lover, he organized the "Voices of the Phillies" fundraiser last year for the Philadelphia Animal Welfare Society (PAWS). Scott and his wife Lori currently reside in Philadelphia, Pa., with their two dogs, Darla and Lady Bird.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands
EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows
SKIN: Bright green fur
PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra-long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic received another honor in 2008 when it was recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). The 43-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

PHILLIES TELEVISION NETWORK

The Phillies enter their 12th season in 2009 with the all-sports cable network Comcast SportsNet (CSN). Comcast will carry 108 games, mainly on the CSN cable channel, in addition to three spring training games. CSN will once again enhance the fan experience with increased clarity of the action, as it continues to produce Phillies home games in high definition from its state-of-the-art mobile production facility.

With a new three-year contract, this year the Phillies have returned to myphl17. This marks the third time WPHL-TV has been home to the club, having carried Phillies games from 1971-82 and again from 1993-98. They will broadcast three exhibition games and 45 games during the regular season, along with the 30-minute show W.B. Mason Behind the Pinstripes before every Sunday afternoon telecast. The show is hosted by Scott Palmer, Phillies Director of Public Affairs and a former sportscaster and news anchor for WPVI-TV.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 153 will be broadcast locally, with eight other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils will open the season on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball on April 5, with the potential of four additional appearances later in the season.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Phillies
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies organization takes great pride in giving back to the community. Off the field, the Phillies have been a team to count on for decades through their efforts of reaching out to those in need.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and donates to dozens of non-profit organizations each year. At the 2008 Annual Phillies Phestival, Phillies Charities helped raise over $758,000 for the ALS Association of Philadelphia, which is the club's primary charity. Since adopting ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in 1984, the Phillies and Phillies Charities have raised over $10 million for ALS research and patient services. Also, Phillies Charities raised an additional $275,000 in 2008, most of which was donated through its Discretionary Fund to local, non-profit organizations.

Among the organizations that benefited from the Phillies and Phillies Charities are the Bethesda Project homeless shelter, American Heart Association, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Boy Scouts of America, Police Athletic League, Boys & Girls Clubs, Philadelphia Futures, Martin Luther King, Jr. Association for Non-Violence, Pennsylvania SPCA, People's Emergency Center, Arthritis Foundation of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Reads.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that their players make to the community each year. In 2008, Phillies players hosted six charity events, raising a combined $1.08 million for a variety of charities:

Geoff Jenkins – Celebrity poker tournament, benefitting the Boys & Girls Clubs of Phoenix
Jamie Moyer – Celebrity Waiters, benefitting the Moyer Foundation
Jimmy Rollins – Celebrity BaseBOWL tournament, benefitting the Arthritis Foundation
Chase Utley – All-Star Animals Casino Night, benefitting the Pennsylvania SPCA
Utley/Victorino – "Get In The Game" charity bowling/billiards tournament, benefitting Philadelphia Futures
Shane Victorino – Charity golf tournament, benefitting the Alzheimer's Association of Maui

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who also volunteer their time and efforts to raise dollars for various charities. In 2008, the wives hosted two charity events that raised a combined $60,000 for the Mary E. Walker House and the Pennsylvania SPCA. Additionally, the wives play a significant role in the Phillies Phestival each year.

Phillies front office employees also annually give of their time, money and efforts in several ways. Virtually the entire front office staff volunteers to work the annual Phillies Phestival. The staff also prepares and serves a holiday dinner for the homeless each year, gives to the United Way and participates in numerous charity events.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. "Phillies Phundamentals" is an after-school program started by the club in January 2001 which runs year-round in several inner-city recreation centers. The program, which targets at-risk children, uses baseball concepts to make learning fun for kids. Additionally, children from the program are brought to a Phillies game and get the opportunity to meet a player. In the fall of 2004, the Phillies started the popular "Be A Phanatic About Reading" program, which reaches thousands of elementary school students in the Philadelphia area.

The Phillies annually support many education-based programs, including Major League Baseball's "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program and the Multiple Sclerosis READaTHON. Also, the "Phillies Harmony Fan Club," which was started in January 2003, uses baseball to provide recreational and educational activities for physically and mentally disabled children and adults.

For the past 15 years, former Phillies pitcher Dickie Noles has been an invaluable member of the organization, speaking annually to thousands of school-aged children on the dangers of drugs and alcohol and the importance of education. A certified drug and alcohol counselor, Noles makes dozens of appearances each year.

The Phillies are also committed to providing the underprivileged youth of Philadelphia the opportunity to play organized baseball through the Rookie and RBI League programs. Rookie and RBI Leagues are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (ages 6-18) to play baseball, but to also teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,000 boys and girls yearly, making it one of the largest RBI and Rookie League programs in the country. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local amateur baseball tournaments. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball and softball players, while the Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament. The Giles Cup, started in 2001, is a college tournament for Division II schools.

Jamie Moyer was joined by some of his teammates and other special guests at his Celebrity Waiters event last June.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.
No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES
Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's post-game media conference, will be held in this room.

PRESS BOX
The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Workroom and library, is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR
An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY
A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS
Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media is asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM
The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

SMOKING
By City of Philadelphia ordinance, smoking is only permitted in designated areas in the vicinity of the First Base Gate, Third Base Gate, Left Field Gate and the East Suite and Club Entrance.

MEDIA WORKROOM
Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS
Working press credentials plus Baseball Writers Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS
Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to make a $25 donation to Phillies Charities, Inc., prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS
Both clubhouses are open from 3:35 p.m. to 6:05 p.m. (for 7:05 p.m. games) in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY
The manager is available following every Phillies home game in the Media Interview Room. For 7:05 p.m. games, the manager is available in the Phillies dugout at 4:00 p.m. There is no formal pre-game availability on day games.

PRESS BOX SEATING
Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

INTERNET/PHONE
Wireless internet is available throughout the Press Box area and in the Photo Workroom. There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed ethernet lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom.
